Scga 2020 team play sat mens

Captain - Glenn Cantin, Asst. Captain - Mel Collins I am happy to report that Thursday team game is the 2010 SCGA Champions!! As co-captain I speak for the players, thank you for your interest and support, it was another factor in our Championship. Our Club now joins a select list of winners, our club and all its members, are part of this victory. This club has a lot of good golfers who love golf, drawing that pool of players made this championship possible. I am proud to be a member of El Dorado, it has brought me great joy. We had 5 new players on this team for years who minged magnificently. Veterans played as veterans. Glenn Cantin and I worked together as a team making tough decisions, I guess they were resolved. Being in the Finals two years in a row is something in itself. The Final against los Angeles Country Club was quite a battle. They had won before and they were the best team we had ever played. Our guys playing with the wind and a gust wind, they played their best golf all year round. 10 players fired net 72 or better, 14 out of 16, 74 nets or better. If LACC was going to beat us, they wouldn't give it to him. Our boys wouldn't be denied! We had 4 players who and have been in the Finals before about 3 times he's doing 4. For them it was their time not to be denied. I'm so happy for Bill Alberth, Ruben Gonzales, Dennis Tramer and Dale Green. See you at the General Meeting on May 11th, we can all celebrate! Hotels Team Play's 2020 season was like any other, with teams from all over the South of South having their sights set on engraving their name in history in one of the oldest traditions of the SCGA championship. The 2020 Team Playoffs were ready to begin the week of March 19, but on the night of March 12, Team Game Captains were notified by the SCGA that post-staple matches were suspended indefinitely due to the rise of COVID-19. It occurs for the eventual closure of golf courses throughout Southern California and the uncertainty that the season resumed amid a pandemic. In mid-May, as golf began reopening in Southern California, captains had the option of their teams resuming the 2020 Team Playoffs as early as July under THE COVID-19 protocols established by the SCGA, local government and facilities. The 23 Thursday Team Play teams and 30 Saturday Team Play teams tried and pledged to safely resume the 2020 playoffs in late July and early August. Both championships were first held in a field format divided into each team's local site. On Thursday Division Champion (Valencia CC) Brookside GC scratched and made his way to the big game, starting the playoffs defeating the historically equipped Red Hill CC. Narrow 25 to 23 wins in the eighth round over Apple Valley CC and again in the semi-finals over Dove Canyon GC squared them with Valencia CC for all the marbles. After going through the playoffs, Valencia CC was in a dogfight, 24 to 24 was the score at the end of the day, with Valencia taking the tiebreaker on a card win 25-24 as the 2020 SCGA Thursday Team Play Champions. Stephen Symons, Travis Cain, John Turnbull and Harrison Harpole contributed four points each to Valencia CC by winning their singles and four-ball matches. Saturday Division Champions (The Coyotes CC) A Team Play matchup like no other, the 2018 champions Los Coyotes CC CC crack on los campeones defensores de 2019, Rancho Vista GC, que derrotó a Los Coyotes en las semifinales del año pasado. Los Coyotes tuvieron mucho impulso, con victorias dominantes de dos dígitos a lo largo de los playoffs de Team Play 2020. Rancho Vista dio todo, dividiendo los partidos de cuatro bolas 8-8, pero se rebajó a Los Coyotes finalmente cuidando de los negocios en los partidos individuales con una ventaja de 18-14 y 26-22 como Saturday Team Play Champions. Los socios de Cuatro-Ball Jae Yoon Lee y Ken Chong también ganaron sus partidos individuales convincentemente para combinar por ocho puntos. Después de su ventaja fueron Kyu Oh y Kenneth Kim junto con Kevin Jang y Arthur Lee, quienes también fueron victoriosos en ambos partidos. 2020 Playoff Results Thurs. Results Sat.
